REBELS IN MOROCCO PLANNING AERIAL INVASION OF SPAIN

ULTIMATUM ISSUED

BY NANKING TO KWANGSI

GENERAL ATTACK
THREATENED

GIVEN TILL AUGUST 1

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Canton, To-day.
An ultimatum to Kwangsi demanding a cessation of military movements was made by Nanking last night and will expire on August 1. If the warning is ignored, Nanking troops will launch a general attack on Kwangsi.

Canton is the objective of the Kwangsi forces, as more than 20,000 Kwangsi soldiers arrived at Wuchow this morning ready to move eastward into Kwangtung. The 19th, 44th, 45th and an independent division have been ordered to invade this province.

Generals Li Chung-jen and Pei Hsueh-shi, Kwangsi military chiefs, are counting on the assistance of several Kwangtung regiments who are still loyal to General Chen Chi-tang.

Five gunboats of the Pearl River Flotilla have arrived at Shuihing and Tszung to reinforce the defence of the western borders.

With large sums of money in their possession, Messrs. Ou Fang-pu and Lin Yih-chung, die-hard adherents of General Chen Chi-tang, are aboard the French liner Marechal Joffre for Saigon en route to Kwangsi. The money is to aid the Kwangsi troops.

General Chiang Kai-shek, President of the Executive Yuan, wants to subdue Kwangsi as soon as possible.

NO SECRET TREATIES IN BRITAIN

London, To-day.—Asked to what extent Great Britain had any military, naval or air commitments the terms of which had not been made public, the Foreign Secretary declared in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon that His Majesty's Government had no unpublished commitments.—British Wireless Service.

FOUR MORE PLAYERS FOR AUSTRALIA

DUCKWORTH, WORTHINGTON, FAGG
AND COPSON

London, To-day.
Duckworth, the Lancashire and England wicket-player, Worthington, the Derbyshire all-rounder, Copson, the Derbyshire fast bowler, and Fagg, the young Kent batsman, have been invited to tour Australia this winter with G. O. Allen's team.

The Marylebone Cricket Club are issuing no further invitations before August 9.—Reuter.

The following 11 players have been invited to make the trip:
G. O. Allen (Middlesex) (captain)
R. W. V. Robins (Middlesex)
Hammond (Gloucester)
Leyland (Yorkshire)
Verity (Yorkshire)
Fishlock (Surrey)
Hardstaff (Nottingham)
Duckworth (Lancashire)
Worthington (Derbyshire)
Copson (Derbyshire)
Fagg (Kent)

The veteran Duckworth, who has for some time been playing second fiddle to Leslie Ames of Kent and Farnham, has made a magnificent comeback this season and is now rated so highly that the superior batting abilities of Ames are not expected to displace him as England's regular stumper.

LOCAL SOLICITOR SUSPENDED

CHARGE OF UNETHICAL CONDUCT

JUDGMENT DELIVERED BY
SUPREME COURT

Judgment was delivered this morning at a full sitting of the Supreme Court by His Honour the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, in the proceedings in which the Incorporated Law Society of Hong Kong sought an order that the name of Mr. Charles Andrew Sutherland Russ, a solicitor, be removed and struck off the Rolls of the Court.

The Court ruled that Mr. Russ be suspended from the practice of his profession as a solicitor for a period of 12 months from to-day.

The respondent was declared to have succeeded on two of the three issues before the Court; but in reference to the third charge His Honour remarked: "Such a reckless disregard of the ethics of the profession to which he belongs constitutes, in my opinion, disgraceful and dishonourable conduct as a solicitor, and I therefore find that the third charge has been proved against the respondent."

TEACHERS WANT SALARIES

Agitation For Sums
Already Due

$120,000 OUTSTANDING

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Canton, To-day.

Municipal school teachers are demanding that the Canton City Government shall pay all the four months' salaries in arrears before Mayor Liu Chi-wen hands over his office to Mr. Tseng Yang-pu. The total amount due the teachers is about $120,000.

Although the Municipal Government declared from time to time that revenues were sufficient to cover expenditure, teachers in municipal schools received their salaries only up to February or January.

The Municipal Government will be overhauled upon the arrival of the new Mayor. All securities are to be abolished as a means of cutting down unnecessary expenses.

Mayor Tseng, the incoming incumbent, is Vice-Minister of Railways. He was formerly provincial Commissioner of Reconstruction in Canton.

It was ruled that each party should pay its own costs.

Mr. H. G. Sheldon, K.C., instructed by Mr. D. L. Strellett, of Messrs. G. K. Hall Brutton and Co., solicitor for the Incorporated Law Society of Hong Kong, was, for the applicant, while Mr. Leo D'Almada e Castro, instructed by Mr. P. M. Hodgson of Messrs. Tso and Hodgson, was for the respondent.

Text Of Judgment

The following is the text of the judgment:—

In the proceedings the Incorporated Law Society of Hong Kong seeks an order that the name of the respondent, Mr. Charles Andrew Sutherland Russ, a Solicitor approved, admitted and enrolled as a Solicitor of this Court, be removed and struck off the Rolls of this Court on the following grounds:—

(a) That the said Charles Andrew Sutherland Russ has been guilty of an offence against the provisions of Section 32 of the Solicitors Act 1843, which section was extended to this Colony by Section 51 of the Legal Practitioners Ordinance 1871, in that he between the fifth day of February 1925 and March 1928, whilst carrying on business as a Solicitor in this Colony under the name of Lee and Russ, and between April 1928 and the end of March 1929, whilst carrying on business as a Solicitor in this Colony under the name of Russ and Co., wilfully and knowingly permitted or suffered such firm name to be made use of in certain actions or suits instituted in the Supreme Court of Hong Kong and in matters in bankruptcy upon the account or for the profit of persons not duly qualified to act as an attorney or solicitor or solicitor or solicitors, knowing such persons or persons not to be qualified as aforesaid.

VICTORIA'S DEPARTURE DELAYED

The departure of the m.v. Victoria, which was due to sail from Hong Kong to-day at 5 p.m., will be postponed to 9 p.m. to-morrow in order to await the arrival of 22 passengers who failed to connect with the vessel at Shanghai and who are expected to arrive here by the s.s. P. Hooper at 9 a.m. to-morrow.

SPANISH SITUATION IMPROVING

SURRENDER OF REBELS
SAID TO BE IMMINENT

"CHINA MAIL" SPECIAL

Madrid, To-day.

The general situation in the civil war continues to develop favourably for the Government forces, according to official Government statements. The definite reoccupation of San Sebastian is regarded as the most important success of the loyal troops. The Government admits that the city of Oviedo is still in the hands of the rebels. The Government expects a surrender of the rebels in Granada and Cordoba soon.

The seriousness of the situation is indicated by the fact that the Director-General of the Spanish police force has been authorised by the Minister of Interior to have executed on the spot everyone who is found stealing, no matter to what party connection he belongs.

SITUATION IMPROVES

Perpignan: Although the position of the Government troops and the insurgents on the main front remains practically unchanged, the latest reports received here yesterday appear to indicate that the situation is slightly improving in favour of the Government forces. The Government, it is said, is trying to drive the insurgent troops to the south-west towards the Portuguese frontier, and have ordered an advance in the direction of Navarre.

Spanish Ambassador In Berlin Resigns

Berlin: The Spanish Ambassador in Berlin, Senor Francisco Agramonte y Cortijo, resigned from his post yesterday because he was not in complete agreement with his Government.

H.K. MENACED BY TYPHOON

NO. 1 SIGNAL
HOISTED

HEADING STRAIGHT FOR COLONY

A telegram received by the American Consulate-General from the Manila Observatory this morning stated that at 9.50 a.m. two typhoons were situated respectively in about Longitude 119E., Latitude 18 N., moving west-north-west; and Longitude 132 E., Latitude 15 N., moving west-north-west.

The first of these typhoons threatens the Colony, if it continues on its present course; the second is situated about 500 miles out to sea, east of Manila.

WEATHER REPORT

To-day's weather report, issued from the Royal Observatory at 10.18 a.m. was as follows:—
No 1 typhoon signal hoisted. Pressure is highest in the Pacific to the south-east of the Bonins and is relatively low over China generally. The typhoon crossed Northern Luzon, and entered the China Sea this morning; it is situated about 320 miles east-south-east of Hong Kong, moving west-north-west and threatening the coast in the vicinity of the Colony. The forecast was: North-east winds, moderate, freshening to a gale; fine at first, cloudy with rain and squalls later.

WARSHIP MOVEMENTS

H.M.S. Perseus is expected to leave the Colony for Chefoo next Saturday, while the Japanese gunboat Saga is expected to arrive on the same day and depart for Canton on August 5.

FORMIDABLE FLEET AT TETUAN

GENERAL FRANCO'S DRIVE AGAINST COMMUNISM

"GOVERNMENT DEPENDING ON SOVIET AND FRANCE"

Paris, To-day.

The rebels in Morocco are apparently planning a great aerial invasion of Spain, according to the special correspondent of "l'Intransigeant" at Tetuan. A big three-engined Junkers plane has arrived at Tetuan and 19 more of the same type, as well as 20 big bombers and transport planes, are expected next week.

Tangier: The International Committee of Control has decided to establish a Commission composed of the commanders of the naval units sent to Tangier by the Powers. The task of the Commission will be to police the port and international zone.

THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE IS OF THE OPINION THAT THE PRESENCE OF SPANISH WARSHIPS IN TANGIER, AGAINST WHICH THE REBELS HAVE PROTESTED, MAY PROVOKE ACTS OF WAR IN THE TANGIER ZONE AND MENACE THE GOOD RELATIONS BETWEEN BRITAIN, FRANCE, ITALY AND SPAIN, WHO JOINTLY GOVERN TANGIER.—REUTER.

Tangier: It is not merely a national question; it is international, declared General Franco interviewed by Reuter at his headquarters at Tetuan. He emphasised that his aim was to help Spain by stamping out Communism. He remarked that surely Britain, Germany and Italy must sympathise.

General Franco appeared confident, and said that the ability of the Spanish Government to hold out depended on the amount of help which might be given by Moscow and the Popular Front Government in France.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

Gibraltar: The Spanish submarine C. 3, one of the group guarding the Straits and preventing rebel forces from being transported, was bombed and sunk by a seaplane six miles south of Europa Point lighthouse, according to the keepers, who watched the encounter. They assert that they were convinced from the way the submarine disappeared when bombed that she was lost.

FRANCO AT SEVILLE
Lisbon: General Franco has now arrived at Seville, which will henceforth be the headquarters of the anti-Government forces, according to radio news from Seville.

AMBASSADOR RESIGNS
Berlin: Senor Cortijo, the Spanish Ambassador to Germany, has resigned.—Reuter.

SLOW TRAFFIC BANISHED FROM CERTAIN LONDON STREETS

London, To-day.—The Minister of Transport, Mr. L. Horne, in a Commons answer yesterday, gave notice of regulations restricting the use of selected streets in Central London by horse-drawn and other slow-moving traffic.—British Wireless Service.

REBELS MAKE HEADWAY

Two Towns Captured
In South

WELCOMED BY POPULATION

Lisbon, To-day.

The Spanish rebels are reported to have made considerable headway in the South, capturing the towns of Huelva and Avamonte, near the Portuguese border. Twelve Communist leaders were shot as soon as the rebel forces occupied the towns.

It is stated that the populations of Huelva and Avamonte welcomed the entry of the rebel troops with enthusiasm. Red flags were torn down and factory hooters were sounded and church bells pealed. All Portuguese trade with Valencia has been suspended.—Reuter.

NO. 552 TO BE BEGUN

Sister-Ship To The
"Queen Mary"

London, To-day.

The exact date of the laying of the keel of the sister-ship to the Queen Mary has not yet been decided, but it is understood that she will be ready in 1940; which is the centenary of the Cunard line.

Preparations on the Clyde have been completed for an immediate start on construction of the ship, which will be given the number 552. It will be remembered that when the Queen Mary was under construction she was known as No. 534.

The Treasury has agreed to an advance for the building of the vessel.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

Another World Record For Latvian Walker

London, To-day.—Competing in a London athletic meeting yesterday, Bernhardt, of Latvia, broke the world's record for the 1,000 metres walk, clocking 3 mins. 49.5-10 secs. The previous mark was to the credit of Altissimi, of Italy, who covered the distance in 3 mins. 51.6-10 secs. in 1913.—Reuter.

Bernhardt was placed second in the Two Miles Walk Final in the Gooding, Canada, in 1910.

PRINCESS TELLS OF ESCAPE

Castle Blaze In Early Hours

CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE TO STRUCTURE

Princess Margaretha of Denmark told a London paper by telephone last month of her own and her two young sons' escape when fire broke out early one morning at the castle of her husband, Prince Axel of Denmark.

Prince Axel, who is a cousin of King Christian of Denmark, was then in London, and flew to Copenhagen later.

The Princess said that the castle, which is at Bernstorffshoej, near Copenhagen, was badly damaged. Many of the family's possessions, however, had been saved.

Everybody Asleep

"The fire broke out at 4 o'clock in the morning," she said. "Everybody was asleep."

"I do not know who discovered it. All I know is that when we were awakened we had to leave the castle in a great hurry."

"How much was destroyed and how much saved I cannot yet say. All that matters is that we are all safe."

The Princess is a sister of the late Queen Astrid of the Belgians. Her two sons are Prince George, aged 16, and Prince Fleming, aged 14.

The stand of honour at the recent Regional Congress of the Kurmark District, held in Berlin. Dr. Goebbels, Minister of Propaganda, is seen third from the left.

"Not Cricket" By A Baseball Pitcher

Temperamental film stars have evidently nothing to teach Johnny Allen, pitcher of the Cleveland Indians baseball team.

Johnny's team was defeated by the Boston Red Sox to the tune of 6-2, and he took the defeat so badly that this is how he is alleged to have behaved when he returned to his hotel at two o'clock the following morning:

Overturned the lounge chairs in the lobby; wrenched a fire extinguisher from its cradle; tossed a step-ladder through a chandelier; and pitched an assortment of shoes about the corridor, scoring several "hits" on hotel employees. When the team manager, Mr. Steve O'Neil, was told of the flare up he fined Johnny $50 for his temperamental outburst.

NURSE'S THREE NASTY FALLS

When crippled with Rheumatism

"Three months ago," writes a nurse, "I was an absolute cripple from rheumatism. In fact, it was so bad that if I got on a couch or bed to rest I could not get up again without two people to help me, and my feet had to be lifted up for me to get to a chair. Also I had three very nasty falls when walking out alone. My left leg from the waist down seemed to go dead. In the end, I had to walk with someone, and at the same time use a stick."

"I used to spend hours weeping in my room because I could not work, and at the last I couldn't even do my own hair. A friend visited me one day and said, 'Oh, nurse, do try Kruschen.' I sent for a bottle at once, and the result is amazing. I can do things now that I couldn't do three months ago. I can walk, dance, skip and really enjoy life."

Two of the ingredients of Kruschen Salts have the power of dissolving uric acid crystals. Other ingredients through the natural channel.

EXHIBITION OF CHINESE ART

At Gloucester Building Next Monday

The Hong Kong Working Artists' Guild, which was founded in February last by Mrs. A. N. Macfadyen and Mr. Luis Chan, announces that for the month of August they are holding a series of Exhibitions on the first floor of the Gloucester Building, the first of which will be the exhibition of the Chinese Fine Arts Club, commencing on Monday next and continuing for one week.

No entrance fee will be charged, and catalogues will be supplied free.

Further details regarding subsequent Exhibitions will be announced in due course.

ATTACK ON CLERK TO JUSTICES

Marine Pensioner Accused

Deal.—John Wall, a marine pensioner, of Mill-road, Deal, was remanded for a week in custody here last month, charged with assaulting Mr. John James Williamson, clerk to the Deal Justices.

It was alleged that Mr. Williamson, who is 74, was leaving the town hall after attending court when Wall sprang at him, clutching his throat with both hands. Mr. Williamson was borne to the ground, with Wall still grasping his throat.

Wall, it was stated, was only arrested several days later.

Mr. Williamson has held his present post since 1888.

eccentric uncle, as well as his love scrapes. Incidentally Dick and Miss Keeler go in for some romancing and are all tied up in a score of hilarious entanglements, which are eventually straightened out in a smashing climax.

Miss Keeler has a winsome, wistful personality with which everyone falls in love. She also gives an exhibition of exceptional tap dancing, particularly an interpretative dance, a love lyric without words, which she and that wizard of stage dancing, Paul Draper, do together.

"SHIP CAFE"—STAR THEATRE

Carl Brisson, who plays the leading role in "Ship Cafe," is seen as a ship stoker, and he sings, dances, fights and acts in his new role, which traces the amusing adventures of the stoker, first as a bouncer in a waterfront cafe, then as the club's overnight singing sensation, and finally as a gigolo to a rich countess. In the interim he falls in love with the cafe's dancer, Arline Judge, but leaves her for Mady Christians, the countess, in the hope of earning enough money to marry Miss Judge. A series of hilarious episodes brings the film to an exciting climax. William Frawley, Eddie Davis and Inez Courtney are included in the cast.

"COLLEGIATE"—MAJESTIC THEATRE

The production of Paramount's new musical picture, "Collegiate," proved a task of stupendous proportions, with more than 2,000 persons contributing to the film's completion and with about 70 different studio departments taking part.

"Collegiate" has more than 30 speaking parts. The cast includes Joe Penner, Jack Oakie, Ned Sparks, Frances Langford, Betty Grable and Lynne Overman.

Several hundred extras and 150 chorus girls worked in the picture. Betty Jane Cooper was brought from New York for a dance specialty, and a dozen of Hollywood's beautiful models were used in one sequence. The story deals with the efforts of Penner, Oakie, Sparks, and Overman to conduct a girl's school. They modernized the entire plant, including the dormitory rooms, the teachers' living quarters, class-rooms and executive offices. The result can well be imagined.

Amusements

Cinema Notes From The Theatres

"HALF ANGEL"—KINGS' THEATRE

This thrilling story of a "sorrow girl" who jinxes the lives of those who love her, has Frances Dee, Brian Donlevy and Charles Butterworth in the featured roles.

A glorious blending of laughter and mystery, romance and comedy, suspense and thrills, "Half Angel" was directed by Sidney Lanfield, with Helen Westley, Henry Stephenson and Sara Haden also prominent in the cast.

Frances Dee is seen as the "Poison Queen" who is twice implicated in murder, with Donlevy cast as the daring young reporter who believes her innocent. Butterworth has one of his inimitable comedy roles as Donlevy's muddle-headed, butter-fingered stooge.

Unexpectedly acquitted of the murder for her father, Miss Dee finds refuge in the home of Helen Westley, a wealthy woman who philanthropically believes in helping those in trouble, despite the repeated protestations of her husband.

The household is a strange one, peopled with a weird assortment of ex-criminals Miss Westley has befriended.

Donlevy, seeking for the facts of Miss Dee's arrest and trial, follows her to the house and enters her room through a window. The girl is terrified and promises to meet the reporter at the front gate.

Returning to the house, Miss Dee is horrified to discover Miss Westley dead and her husband dying—apparently of poison! The police arrest Miss Dee and because of her record, accuse her of the poisonings.

Donlevy's faith never falters, however, and he traps the real killer in a series of thrilling episodes, brought to a climax by a clever and unexpected ruse.

Replete with sparkling dialogue, unusual romance and hilarious comedy situations that highlight the mystery, thrills and suspense, "Half Angel" was written by Bess Meredith and Gene Fowler from a story by F. Scott Tennyson. "IF YOU COULD ONLY COOK"—ALHAMBRA THEATRE

This picture brings to the screen a new love team, Herbert Marshall and Jean Arthur. And it also marks Miss Arthur's initial appearance as a full-fledged star. In "If You Could Only Cook," Marshall is seen as a disgusted millionaire. Not disgusted because he doesn't know what to do with his money, but because he is about to marry a girl he doesn't love and who doesn't love him. And further, because his board of directors has been annoying him. Instead of getting drunk, he goes and sits in the park.

Here he meets Miss Arthur, who is scanning the want advertisements for a job. She mistakes him for another unemployed member of society and invites him to go with her to answer an advertisement for a married couple, a butler and a maid. Marshall, on the spur of the moment, accepts, and off go the millionaire and the young lady and get the job.

They find themselves working for a big-shot racketeer; Leo Carrillo plays this role. And when both Marshall and Carrillo fall in love with Marshall's "wife," things happen. Especially when Marshall has a previous commitment to marry a society girl on a fast-approaching date.

From this point on, the tale is filled with complications that promise much in the way of merriment. In the supporting cast are Lionel Stander, brassy-voiced poet of "The Secondmel," Alan Edwards, Frieda Inescourt, Gene Morgan, Ralf Harolde, Matt McHugh and Richard Powell.

"COLLEEN"—ORIENTAL THEATRE

The story, written by Robert Lord, is packed with rollicking comedy, romance and a touch of real drama. There is more of a plot than in the ordinary musical, and it concerns the efforts of Powell to straighten out the business affairs of his wealthy and (Continued at foot of Preceding Column)

BRIDGE NOTES

Excessive Courtesy

By Ely Culbertson

The exquisite courtesy exchanged between declarer and adversary on certain hands reminds one strikingly of the Alphonse and Gaston cartoons of long ago. The declarer painstakingly manoeuvres himself into a position from which only the opponents or heaven can extricate him. Gallant Gaston, in the person of one of the defenders, gallops to the rescue with shining sword. Their helpless partners, temporarily united under the banner of suffering, smile weakly and commiseratingly at each other, each wondering who is to be the final victim.

The declarer's four spade contract in the hand shown below was proof against any form of defence except the one he used on himself.

The bidding:

West opened the singleton heart and declarer won with the ace. He then laid down three top trumps and, being disappointed that the jack did not fall, saw no reason to force it out. Obviously he should have done so, in order to guard the diamond suit from trump interference. The defenders then never could take more than two heart tricks and the trump, declarer's ace of clubs acting as an impregnable fortress. But after the three top trumps the diamond was led and overtaken in the dummy. East had to follow to two diamond leads, but on the third round, to his partner's astonishment, he carefully conserved his high trump, discarding a heart. The fourth and fifth rounds found him still with a lover's grip on his beautiful trump. Declarer, feeling he had executed some rare type of coup, discarded losing card after card, eventually conceding the cherished jack of trump and a club trick.

Obviously, had East ruffed at his earliest opportunity, the contract would have been defeated one trick, since only two losing cards could have been discarded. East must have sensed, from his partner's stony face, that his performance had not been especially brilliant, and he remained discreetly silent, but the declarer was more fatuous. He laid himself wide open with a gay, self-satisfied: "Well, how did I play it, partner?"

North's answer was more succinct than elegant. "Lousy!" he growled.

AGA KHAN'S SALE OF BLENHEIM RAISES STORM OF PROTEST

C.B.C. LADIES TRIUMPH IN OPEN RELAY

GOOD SWIMMING SEEN AT NORTH POINT

INSTRUCTIVE LIFE-SAVING EXHIBITION

(By "Crawl")

CONTRARY to expectations there were only two teams in the 200 Metres Open Relay for Ladies at the Chinese Bathing Club's fourth monthly swimming gala held at Quarry Bay last night, although the other events were very evenly contested and provided fine sport, especially the Ladies' 100 Metres Free Style Championship.

The Victoria Recreation Club Ladies put up a gallant showing against a faster average team and, although there was not much in it at the finish of the race, it was evident that the visitors were far from being at ease under the strange conditions, and not one of the swimmers made a good turn at the end of the first length.

Miss M. Roza made her first appearance in competitive sport for over a year and swam a good race, but was no match for her opponent in the Open Relay.

CANTON SWIMMERS BEAT S. CHINA

Interesting Event At North Point

NORMAN LEE IN LIMELIGHT

(By "CRAWL")

An interesting function took place at the South China Athletic Association's Bathing Pavilion at North Point last night, when a team of swimmers from the Chiu Chui Club, Canton were entertained to a series of swimming events and water-polo, the visitors winning by 17 points to 16.

Norman Lee, the South China champion, was again in splendid fettle and carried off the honours of the day.

But for the fact that Tsui Fai-lam mistimed his finish in the 400 Metres free-style, South China might have won the contest instead of losing it.

The visitors were also successful in the water-polo game which brought the gala to a conclusion, winning by the odd goal in five.

Results were:

200 Metres Relay—
1. South China (Wong Chi-hing, Kwok Hon-ming, Yip Hon-chuen and Norman Lee) Time: 2 mins. 0 4/5 secs.

2. Chui Chui Club, Canton (Leung Ho, Ng Kit-man, Koon Ping-man and Ng Chung-man).

AVONDALE WINS BIG RACE AT GOODWOOD

London, To-day. — Avondale, backed at 100 to 8, won the Goodwood Stakes yesterday from Chosen, a 10 to 1 chance, by two lengths, while a head separated the latter from Corona-Corona (100 to 8), which was third. There were 16 starters. — Reuter.

TIENTSIN WANT EARLIER AQUATIC INTERPORT

SEPTEMBER TOO COLD FOR RACING: NOEL HAMMOND'S STATUS

Shanghai, July 25.

THE Shanghai Amateur Swimming Association has received a letter from the Tientsin Amateur Swimming Association who wish to advance the date of the interport gala to be held at Tientsin.

The original date was set for the first week-end in September, September 4 and 5. The contention is that this date is too late in the season as the water in Tientsin at that time will be too cold for racing.

BOWLS SINGLES SEMI-FINAL

Gutierrez And Alves Meet To-day

A very interesting lawn bowls encounter in the Semi-Final round of the Colony Open Singles Championship will take place at the Kowloon Dock Recreation Club this evening, weather permitting, when H. A. "Dick" Alves meets L. A. Gutierrez, also of the Bredier, for the right to meet A. E. Coates (Craigengower) in the Final.

Although neither of to-day's players were really hard-pressed during their progress towards the Semi-Final Round, Alves had a very narrow squeak in the First Round, when he eliminated R. Duncan, the former holder, after being in arrears for four-fifths of the game.

Gutierrez, holder of the title in 1932, beat F. X. Silva, N. J. Bebbington, A. S. Gomes and Jack Shepherd to reach the Semi-Final.

K.B.G.C. BOWLS TEAMS FOR SATURDAY

The following have been selected to represent the Kowloon Dock Recreation Club against the Kowloon Electric R.C. in the First and Second Divisions of the Lawn Bowls League next Saturday: 1st team at home—
A. S. Russell, J. Watson, W. Macfarlane, L. Guy (skip).
2nd team away—
W. L. Walker, K. C. Hamilton, C. B. Hosking, H. H. Rose (skip).
E. S. Rogers, S. M. White, J. G. Meyer, G. H. Sherriff (skip).
F. A. Coatesman, R. O. Reed, J. C. Gil, G. E. P. Thompson (skip).

Shanghai swimmers will readily agree to this coldness of the water, as interports who have swum up north know, is a big handicap. But unfortunately the local championship galas have been set for the last three week-ends in August, and with arrangements fully completed, it is almost impossible to change plans now.

Local championships will be swum at the Foreign Y.M.C.A., the French Club and the Rowing Club on the last three week-ends in August and directly after these contests have been completed the team will leave for the North.

Hammond's Status
An interesting point has arisen in connection with the Interport with Tientsin. Noel Hammond, who is probably the best swimmer in the two ports, is the subject of much discussion. According to interport rulings a swimmer must be a resident of a port for six months to be eligible to represent that port in an interport.

MAJOR G.H. DEANE'S CRITICISM

BREEDERS HAVE VERY DIFFICULT TIME

"HOTSPUR" STATES THEIR CASE

London, July 7.

MAJOR Gerald H. Deane, a partner in Tattersalls, issued the following statement last night regarding the sale by the Aga Khan of his stallion Blenheim, winner of the 1930 Derby and sire of this year's Derby winner, Mahmoud: "I was informed at Newmarket on Thursday by 'Hotspur' that negotiations for the sale of Blenheim were pending to an American syndicate.

"During racing on Friday afternoon I asked the Aly Khan if he would confirm or contradict this. He informed me that his father was at Geneva, and that, while he knew negotiations were pending, nothing definite had been settled. "This morning I read a definite announcement that the horse has been sold, and I am also informed that the Aga Khan is negotiating for the sale of another of his stallions, which on May 28 was advertised in the 'Racing Calendar' as full for 1937. Blenheim in the 'Racing Calendar' of May 28 is advertised as full for 1937, and a few nominations available for approved mares for season 1938 at 500 sovs.

"While I am fully aware that the Aga Khan, when issuing his nomination forms to Blenheim has printed on them the words 'and subject to the mares being approved and the horse remaining in possession of his present owner,' when Solaris was sold, and bought by an English syndicate, he was sold subject to his standing in England the following season and fulfilling the nominations which had already been booked to him.

"My point is this. If the Aga Khan advertises his stallions to cover for future years, and invites breeders to book to them, are these breeders suddenly to be informed that the stallion has been sold?

Must Take What is Left
"It is not easy to book nominations to Derby winners, and if these nominations are suddenly cancelled owing to the sale of the stallion, other Derby winners may be already booked full for 1937, and possibly for 1938. Therefore the breeder who has nominations booked to Blenheim for future years has only one alternative, to take nominations to the best stallion available, all the classic stallions being probably already full. TO-DAY'S LEAGUE TENNIS

K.I.T.C. And K.C.C. "A" To Clash

INTERESTING PROGRAMME

A very interesting clash in the "C" Division of the Lawn Tennis League will take place this afternoon at King's Park, weather permitting, when the Kowloon Indians Tennis Club, the present leaders in the division, meet the Kowloon Cricket Club "A" team. The Indians, together with Club de Recreo, have a 100 per cent record, but they will be fully extended this afternoon. The Hussain brothers are good enough to take all three sets; while the remaining pairs should secure a set each to clinch the match. The Portuguese meet the holders, the Chinese Recreation Club, on the latter's courts and the visitors should win by a handsome margin.

The following is to-day's programme:

"C" DIVISION (TO-DAY)
K.I.T.C. v K.C.C. "A" (King's Park)
K.I.T.C.A. v I.C.C. (Kowloon Tong)
University v S.C.A.A. (Pokfulam)
C.R.C. v Recreo (Causeway Bay)
C.S.C.C. v C.C.C. (Happy Valley)
K.C.C. "B" v Army (King's Park)
"D" DIVISION (TO-MORROW)
Army v P.R.C.
I.C.C. v R.S.C.

DERBY WINNER

BLENHEIM SOLD TO AMERICA

Good Price Fetched For 9 Years Old

AGA KHAN'S OPINION OF MAHMOUD

Geneva, July 6.

The Aga Khan confirmed the statement by "Hotspur" in "The Daily Telegraph" that his famous stallion Blenheim, winner of the Derby in 1930, was to be sold to a United States syndicate. The sale was completed yesterday.

Mr. William Dupont, junior, and his sister, Mrs. Marion Somerville, descendants of the founder of the great Dupont de Nemours Powder Company, are largely interested in the purchasing syndicate.

A Good Price
The Aga Khan added that the price is a trifle under £50,000. He considers that this is a good figure, since Blenheim is nine years old, whereas Windsor Lad, sold by the Maharaja of Rajpipla to Mr. M. H. Benson for the same amount two years ago, was only a three-year-old.

The statement that he sold Blenheim because he already has sufficient horses of the Blenheim blood was also confirmed by the Aga Khan. He expressed the belief that Mahmoud, this year's Derby winner, of which Blenheim was the sire, will prove as fine a stallion as Blenheim has been.

VON CRAMM ONLY SLIGHTLY HURT

Upper Thigh Muscle Strained

Berlin, July 6.

Baron Gottfried von Cramm, the German lawn tennis champion, who became lame shortly after the beginning of his match with Perry in the Wimbledon singles final on Friday, stated here to-night that he would be fit to represent Germany in the Davis Cup match against Yugoslavia at Agrani on Friday.

His Berlin doctor had found

Beltrao As Baseballer

N. BELTRAO, second baseman of the Volunteers baseball team, only took up the game this season but he has already found a permanent place in the team. Possessing a good eye, he is safe at fielding, though his throwing and batting can easily be improved.

It is in the field of soccer that Beltrao is best known. He played the game while still in school and made his first appearance in the League when he played for Recreo in 1926 as a goalkeeper. Subsequently he had been tried in several positions, being finally played as pivot, in which berth he has remained ever since. He has been the pivot for Hong Kong in Shanghai on two occasions and represented the local Portuguese community against the Shanghai Portuguese in the now defunct Portuguese Interport series. He also toured Manila with the St. Joseph's team in 1932.

Beltrao is also a good hockey player—last season he was a member of the Portuguese team which won the "Sunday Herald" International Charity Cup competition in 1932.

A fine all-rounder, Beltrao excels at tennis and badminton, while he is still a fairly good sprinter.

U.S. DELIGHT AT MISS JACOBS' FINE VICTORY

Persistence Was Rewarded

INTERESTING COMMENTS BY NEWSPAPERS

New York, July 6.

Americans were delighted to-day when they read of Helen Jacobs' victory over Mrs. Sperrling at Wimbledon yesterday to gain the women's singles championship.

It is felt that the win is the reward of dogged persistence and skill that would have gained the crown before now but for an extraordinary run of bad luck.

All the New York newspapers published wireless photographs of Miss Jacobs in action on the centre court.

Newspaper comments are: "Herald Tribune"—She went out finally with the cheers of an alien gallery ringing in her ears after one of the most popular Wimbledon victories in memory.

"New York Times"—The crowd gave her probably the greatest and most wholehearted ovation Wimbledon ever will know.

"New York American"—It was a war of stamina, and everybody expected Hussy Helen to fold first, but it was the former German-born marathon runner who wilted under the strain. Having won, Miss Jacobs staggered into the dressing room, her legs as wobbly as those of a punch-drunk pugilist.

he said, that he had not torn a muscle, as at first feared, but had merely strained a muscle in the upper part of his thigh.

He denied the report, which appeared in every German newspaper on Friday evening, that he had a motor accident before his match with Perry, and that this, his Berlin doctor had found

MISS JACOBS' THRILLING FINAL ENCOUNTER

FINALS WHICH WILL BE REMEMBERED

FOUR MATCHES WILL LIVE FOR ALL TIME

DOUBLES WINNERS NOT AT BEST

(By A. Wallis Myers)

London, July 6.

WIMBLEDON, the "friendly war" of 30 nations, ended at sundown on Saturday with four-fifths of its spoils in British hands. The women's singles championship, the only title to go abroad, remained with California, which has held it for eight years out of the last ten.

The Wimbledon just over may have lacked the continuous thrills of former years. Its threads were broken and its courts slowed down by fickle weather; accident and ailment took unusual toll among the champions, robbing relative form of its proper orientation. But none will deny that Perry vindicated his right to hold the singles crown, or that three of the five finals yielded excitement, or that certain matches produced play worthy to be enshrined in memory.

One may name four in this category—the classic driving duel last Wednesday between Austin and Von Cramm; the brilliant, bustling first between Perry and Budge which followed it on the same day; Senorita Lizana's set-and-a-half against Miss Jacobs, in which the Chilean champion revived the genius of Suzanne Lenglen and looked, for that period, almost as invincible; and the great doubles match on Friday night between Allison and Van Ryn and Hughes and Tuckey, the strain of which was reflected in the British pair the next day.

The curtain was lifted on the last day before another packed house, but I have seen the pressure in the standing space more irksome for those who have undergone an all-night vigil.

£20 A Seat

Indeed, some who had their normal sleep at home were able, by the irony of fate to get in. Yet seats in the stadium rose to a premium, and one Californian paid £20 to see his compatriot in her fifth final. Mr. Baldwin preferred Henley, but Mr. Ramsey MacDonald and Sir Samuel Hoare were faithful to the courts.

In the opening final, the champions of America and Germany were locked in a struggle that lasted one hour 40 minutes—a struggle that looked to be going all one way when Miss Jacobs, with a set in hand, was leading 3-1 in the second.

Then Mrs. Spiering, fighting back, came gallantly to a climax nearly as palpitating, alike to the two who strove and to the thousands watching their schooled endurance, as that of last year in the same event.

Untimely Incident

The American had established her commanding lead against the expert's view, and probably against her own expectation. She had been aided morally, though she was in no way to blame, by an untimely incident in the fifth game.

Each player had held her own service twice; there was every indication, from the defensive methods employed and from the grim tenacity of both, that this would be a level fight, probably determined at the end by a measurement of last reserves or the incidence of luck.

But in the fifth game, when the crowd were ready to wait an hour or more for this marathon race to disclose its secret, came a check to the German champion's ardour and, as it proved, to her aim as well.

Thought She Had Gained Lead. She had thought, and others too, that, after a long and fluctuating rally, game point had been earned, and when she scored the next point, Mrs. Spiering began to cross over thinking she had gained a 3-2 lead. She had not heard the umpire's "not up" that had recorded the first of these two strokes to her opponent.

Miss Helen Hall Jacobs, above, is the second person to hold the ladies' singles lawn tennis titles of both hemispheres—she recently won the Wimbledon crown for the first time, beating Mrs. Spiering in the final.

OLYMPIC GAMES IN BERLIN

Traditional Rite Observed

MEETING OF INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE

"CHINA MAIL" SPECIAL

Berlin, To-day.

The traditional session of the International Olympic Committee, which precedes the Olympic Games, was held yesterday in the old Hall of Berlin University. The President of the Olympic Committee, Count Baillet-Latour, presided at the sitting.

The Deputy Leader of the National-Socialist Party, Herr Rudolf Hess, warmly welcomed the men of the International Olympic Committee, the competitors and foreign guests on behalf of Herr Adolf Hitler. The State Commissary for Berlin, Dr. Lippert, acting Lord Mayor, then greeted the foreign visitors in the name of the city of Berlin, and the President of the German Olympic Committee, Dr. Lewald, and the Reich Sports Leader, Herr von Tschammer und Osten, likewise extended a hearty welcome to the visitors.

A BRITISH VISITOR. London: In authoritative quarters here it is stated that Sir Robert Vansittart, Permanent Under-Secretary of State in the Foreign Office, will in the next few days pay a private visit to Berlin of nine to 10 days' duration.

The Evening Standard, commenting upon the fact, states that Sir Robert will begin his summer leave in Berlin when the Olympic Games begin, as he has always taken a keen interest in sports of all kinds. He will be the guest of his brother-in-law, Sir Eric Phipps, British Ambassador in Berlin, whose sister Sir Robert Vansittart married.—Trans-Ocean Service.

OLYMPIC GAMES SENSATION

Two U.S. Boxers Sent Back To America

Berlin, To-day. Another major Olympic Games sensation has been caused by the United States Olympic Committee. This time two members of the boxing team, Howell King and Joe Church, have been sent back to America for misdemeanour.—Reuter.

Mrs. Eleanor Holm-Jarett, who was selected to represent America in the women's swimming events, was the first of the U.S. complement to be sent back—for a breach of training regulations.

FRED PERRY EXPLAINS

"Getting Old" Remark Made Jokingly

London, July 6. Fred Perry, winner of the Men's Singles at Wimbledon, said at the Lawn Tennis Association Ball on Saturday: "This is possibly my last Wimbledon win. I am getting old."

When asked to explain, Perry, who is 27, admitted that the remark was made jokingly.

"Well," he added smiling, "perhaps it was a slip of the tongue."

Miss Helen Vinson, the film actress wife of Fred Perry, flew from Croydon to Paris yesterday. She will sail for Hollywood in the Normandie on Wednesday.

Australian Grand National

DESPISED HORSE WINS BIG JUMP RACE

Melbourne, July 13.

Mr. J. P. Devine (lessee-trainer) and J. Regan (rider) had the last laugh on many critics when Santa Casa, a maiden performer, won Australia's greatest jumping race—the V.R.C. Grand National Steeplechase—at Flemington on Saturday.

Here was a horse which a few months ago was despised by almost everyone but Mr. Devine. An illustration of the diverse opinions of his worth can be quoted.

Mr. Devine told an owner of hunters and steeplechasers that Santa Casa was for sale. "He could be bought for three hundred," he said.

"Do you mean shillings or pence?" asked the other, contemptuously.

But now, as the lessee-trainer of a Grand National winner, Mr. Devine has the last laugh.

Too Unlucky! Here, too, was a jockey (J. Regan) who had never ridden a winner in Melbourne—an unfashionable jockey who had been successful in India, but whose mounts here rarely possessed anything.

INTERNATIONAL RUGBY SERIES

Welsh Dispute Over Home Ground

Cardiff, July 2.

The Welsh Rugby Union last night, in Cardiff, by one vote decided the only home international fixture next season—against Scotland—should be played at Swansea.

There was considerable opposition, delegates from the Eastern Section proposing that in view of the limited accommodation compared with Cardiff Army Park, the match should be played at Cardiff.

Swansea delegates opposed this, stating it was Swansea's turn to have the match, and revealed that the Swansea Corporation had schemes under consideration by which the St. Helen's ground could be extended to hold 70,000 spectators.

Britain's Greatest Imperialist

At the beginning of last month was celebrated the centenary of the birth of Joseph Chamberlain. His active life was suddenly cut short in 1910; he died just a month before the outbreak of the Great War. Thus a full quarter of a century has passed since he was a bright and burning flame in English politics, and it is more than 30 years since he quitted the Colonial Office and resigned from the Government in order that he might carry on his crusade for Tariff Reform with greater freedom and somewhat less embarrassment to his political Chief, Mr. Balfour. Till 1885 he was regarded by the progressive forces of the time as the natural successor to the Liberal leadership when Mr. Gladstone quitted the stage. It may well be difficult for those who only remember Joseph Chamberlain as the champion of British imperialism and the apostle of tariff reform to conceive him as the darling horse of all that was advanced and extreme in British Radicalism.

Many Conservative supporters did not forget—though they schooled themselves to forgive—the author of biting phrases and audacious projects which challenged the very citadels of Toryism, Whiggism, and Liberalism alike. He had no sympathy and small patience with Liberals who were ready to sacrifice everything to a theory and simply gaped in inactivity at imperial and international problems because they refused to be solved according to their sentimental or selfish formulae. Chamberlain certainly tempered his Radicalism when his fidelity to the Unionist principle made him the ally of the Conservatives; but in so doing he democratized the Conservative party and gave practical shape to the creation of a Tory democracy.

That was a supreme achievement. Nor does it stand alone. "I believe," said Chamberlain in 1895, "that the British race is the greatest of governing races that the world has ever seen." Doubtless other statesmen before him had been of similar mind, but he was the first to proclaim it as an article not only of faith but of action. Chamberlain was the greatest imperialist that Whitehall has seen. The Federation of Australia was his work. He was fired by the vast imperial conceptions of Rhodes for Africa. He had noble visions of imperial federation which have resulted in what we now call the British Commonwealth of Nations. It was his vision which foresaw, and his practical genius which realised, that either the parts of the British Empire must be bound more closely together or they must fall asunder into weak and independent fractions. He made his greatest British name throughout the Empire, and even in South Africa, when time has grown a little older, his name will be reckoned among the true founders of the Union.

It was his imperialism that determined the mould in which he cast his proposals for fiscal change, and the Ottawa Conference was the first practical realisation of the dream. Perhaps he launched the scheme before the time was fully ripe. He thought he could persuade a democratic electorate to repair their roof before the onset

WEDDING BELLS ASOME — LEE

BRIDEGROOM ON STAFF OF ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

At St. Teresa's Church, Kowloon Tong, yesterday, the wedding was solemnised of Mr. Hugh Gregory Asome to Miss Doris Margaret Lee, the Rev. Father P. Joy, S.J., officiating.

The bride, who is the only daughter of Mr. H. Lee and the late Mrs. H. Lee of Liverpool, England, is a teacher at the school, run by the Sisters of the Immaculate Conception. The bridegroom, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Asome of Port-of-Spain, Trinidad, B.W.I., is on the teaching staff of St. Joseph's College, and takes a keen interest in all sporting activities of St. Joseph's College, especially the College Cricket team.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a white satin gown trimmed with tiny white roses, and carried a bouquet of white tube roses.

Miss Betty Ribeiro, as bridesmaid, wore a pink silk dress set off with a hat to match and carried a sheaf of pink gladioli.

Mr. C. N. Dragon, of the S. C. M. Post, undertook the duties of best man. Miss Linda Gosano was at the organ.

Among those present were the Rev. Brothers of St. Joseph's and La Salle Colleges, the lay staff of St. Joseph's College and a few intimate friends.

By kind permission of the Rev. Father N. Maestrini, a reception was given at the Parochial Hall. On leaving for the honeymoon, which is being spent at Macau, Mrs. Asome wore a blue silk dress with coatlee to match.

The Most Heroic Lawyer In History

LOUIS BERNARD (1788-1858) a leading attorney of Rennes, France, volunteered to defend General Jean Travot on a trumped up charge of treason before a Military Court on March 20, 1816. The defendant was quickly found guilty and sentenced to death, the execution being set for a few hours thence. Bernard moved that the sentence be set aside until the King had had a chance to consider a plea of mercy. The King was in Versailles, five days away, and Mrs. Travot was then on her way to see him. On his motion being denied, Bernard moved that he be permitted to present his arguments in support of the motion. The Court consented, and Bernard spoke incessantly for five days and five nights, until Mrs. Travot returned with the King's commutation of the sentence, which saved the General's life. After the trial, the weary tribunal imposed a jail sentence upon the lawyer for having "tricked the Court out of exercising its duty."

House Of Four Towns

THE house owned by R. Kuehn at 771 Irvington Avenue, Maplewood, N.J., has been in four towns, but has never been moved. It was built in Vailsburg 25 years ago. Vailsburg became a part of Newark and the town line was changed. Then it was decided the vicinity was to be part of Irvington, and the line was again changed. Thereafter another change was made and the ground became a part of Maplewood—all three of the other towns bordering.

One case of enteric fever was reported to the local Health authorities during the 24 hours ended on Tuesday.

of the hurricane. He failed, and the devastating force of the hurricane made complete repair inevitable. No other man in 1905-6 could have done so much. What was his secret? A daemonic energy, a vivid and a masterful personality, a hard business sense, a passion not for ideas but for action, a cutting edge, a gift of incisive speech, the power to inspire, and in private life, as Mr. Harecourt, Asquith and others bore witness, a unique gift of friendship.

THE KING AS MUSICIAN

It is announced that the King has become Patron of the Royal Amateur Orchestral Society. He thus follows the precedent set by his father and grandfather, who were both patrons of the society.

The King's own musical tastes are eclectic. He likes the very new as expressed in "jazz." He is also a lover of the bagpipes, which retain the qualities of the most austere and primitive art. An music of the intervening periods he evinces less interest.

The "Royal Amateur," which is severely classical in its approach to music, has been royal since it was founded by the Duke of Edinburgh 62 years ago.

FROM COWES TO QUEEN'S HALL

It started from a conversation in the seventies between the Duke, who was a keen violinist, his secretary — a capable pianist — and Sir Arthur Sullivan.

After making music together on the Royal yacht Galatea, they began counting up other music-lovers who were at Cowes. These were invited on board for a musical evening.

Eventually a concert was arranged, which resulted in the foundation of the society. In its early days the Duke of Edinburgh often occupied a desk among the first violins at its concert. These are now held at Queen's Hall.

For the first 22 years of its flourishing existence, during which it has raised over £10,000 for charities, Sir Arthur Sullivan was its conductor.

LAUGHTER IN THE HOUSE

REMINISCENCES OF OTHER DAYS

SOME STORIES OF THE LIGHTER SIDE OF POLITICS

(By Rt. Hon. Lord Alness, K.C.)

IT is difficult enough, in all conscience, to compress within the limits of a newspaper article one's recollections of the judicious humour. The metres and bounds are even more irksome when one addresses oneself to the topic of Parliamentary humour. Let me at once say that I aspire to be illustrative rather than exhaustive, and that I shall draw upon a now, I fear, somewhat slender store of personal memories rather than cite examples of Parliamentary humour which have become classical and therefore commonplace.

May I say a word or two about the background of these memories? I must own that I am one of those who regard the House of Commons, with one dubious exception, as the most interesting place in the world. Westminster, with all it stands for, opens doors to more attractive resorts than any other open sesame of which I am aware. Indeed, the House of Commons itself is a never-failing source of interest to the student of human nature.

Undoubted Facts

To say that it is the most critical, and at the same time the most generous assembly in the world is to record a commonplace. To say that a member may stand higher in its esteem if he commits a faux pas, and then wholeheartedly expresses his regrets, and apologises, is to record an equally undoubted fact.

When one has regard to the rough road of electioneering by which a member arrives at the House, to the absorption of his time which conscientious membership entails when he has arrived there, and also to the exacting demands of the average constituency while he re-

MASS MALARIA EXPERIMENT IN AFRICA

CANADIAN PIONEER LOOKING BACK ON 50 YEARS OF VANCOUVER

Sir Geo. Brown Tells Story Of C.P.R.

SAW FIRST COAST-TO-COAST
TRAIN ARRIVE

Just about 50 years ago a young man left Ontario for Granville (lately known as Gastown). He found it a small township of timber and mud—mainly mud.

To-day it is known as Vancouver; and recently the man looked out at Trafalgar Square and back down the years.

Sir George McLaren Brown is his name now. He is European general manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

In 1886 he went to Vancouver as passenger agent. "My office," he said, "was a white-washed shed on the water-front—the first office of the C.P.R. in Vancouver."

And on June 28, 1886, the first "coast-to-coast" C.P.R. train steamed into Vancouver.

Realisation

"A great fire had just ravaged the forest," he said. "The roads were just planks laid over the mud. The side-walks were planks laid on piles. You had to be mighty sober to get home at night!"

Slowly yet inevitably the iron road was forged across Canada until that June day half a century ago, when a 20-year-old clerk saw the realisation of a great ambition.

Round his room overlooking Trafalgar-square are portraits of the pioneers—Lord Mount Stephen and the rest of them—who achieved this seeming miracle.

"I built my wife our first house from green cedar wood," he remarked. "It was a bungalow built on piles. Then the wood seasoned and we could see the green stuff growing underneath the cracks in the floor."

Mud To Skyscrapers

"When I seek my old friends in Vancouver now, the men who played their part with me—I have to go to the cemetery."

To-day the iron road runs across Canada. And the city of Vancouver rears its skyscrapers to the clouds from the long-forgotten mud of old Gastown.

SETTLEMENT PLAN FOR GERMAN JEWS

Cuba Suggested As
New Palestine

A plan to settle 100,000 German Jews in Cuba has been submitted to President Gomez by a New York Congressman, Mr. William Sirovich. The President is reported to have received the proposal favourably.

Mr. Sirovich suggests that German Jews should be distributed throughout the island; they would bring their own capital for the development of industry and agriculture. Further discussions on the subject will be held later this year.

SABRE PRESENTED TO MAGISTRATE

By Man Accused Of Using It

A sabre, with which a man was accused of assaulting a woman, was presented by him, after he had been discharged, to Mr. Yoxall, the chairman of the Bench at Birmingham. The man, Thomas Edwin Shepherd, aged 45, of Medina Road, Tulseley, had been remanded for a week for medical observation.

The chairman said the bench were satisfied that the cause of the man's action was a combination of drink, ill-health, and the effects of a thunderstorm. The chairman accepted the sabre.

CHINESE BATHING CLUB Successful Swimming Gala

A most successful swimming gala was held last night at the Chinese Bathing Club, there being an extremely large turnout of members and friends.

A very well-staged and carried out programme was greatly enjoyed, and the prizes were distributed by Mr. Aw Boon Haw, the well-known business man and philanthropist.

Not the least part of the night's enjoyment was the distribution of over 1,000 cups of "Ovaltine," the well-known tonic food beverage, amongst members and friends.

Attractive Stand

At a very attractive stand where two "Ovaltine" Girls were in attendance, cups of this delicious beverage either cold or hot were dispensed.

The enthusiasm of swimmers for "Ovaltine" was very evident by the fact that in the early part of the evening, the "Ovaltine" Girls were literally besieged by crowds clamouring for "Ovaltine."

The great popularity of "Ovaltine" amongst swimmers, and in fact everyone, is ample proof of the high quality and health-building properties of this tonic food beverage.—Advt.

ROAD "CRASHES" IN HOTEL

Ambulance Contest
For Railwaymen

CREWE TEAM AT TOP

Sir Josiah Stamp, chairman of the London Midland and Scottish Railway, presented the prizes in the ambulance competition for railwaymen at the Euston Hotel, last month.

The competitors were called upon to show their first-aid skill in road accidents reconstructed in rooms of the hotel. Marks were awarded for bandaging, treatment and speed in transferring patients to the care of a doctor or hospital. Meanwhile, the captains of the teams kept up a running commentary, describing the steps which were being taken.

Winning Team

The Crewe team scored first place with 261½ points out of a possible 330. Bushbury were runners-up with 242, and Moss End (Glasgow) third with 223 points. Sir Josiah Stamp, who is a Knight of Grace of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, paid a tribute to the 24,000 members of the ambulance volunteers of the L.M.S.

The will of the late Lord Darling, famous for his witty remarks from the bench, was recently proved at upwards of £22,000.

Careless Motorist Sued By Fiancee For Damages

A man was ordered by the King's Bench Division to pay his fiancée £764 damages for injuries received in a motor collision.

He was Mr. Leslie R. Brown, Lydeard Road, East Ham, who was sued by Miss Priscilla Roebuck, a nurse at Queen Mary's hospital, Stratford, E.

It was stated that Miss Roebuck and Mr. Brown were motoring along High St. North, East Ham, when the car was involved in a collision with a motor-lorry belonging to Mr. Christopher George ELLI, of Wellington Road, Forest Gate.

The accident occurred during a thunderstorm on the night of September 1. Mr. Justice Lawrence held that Mr. Brown was to blame for not keeping close to the kerb at a point where there was an obstruction in the road.

Miss Roebuck received a double fracture of the jaw and a badly torn lip, but fortunately, Mr. Justice Lawrence added, she was only slightly disfigured.

Mr. Brown was ordered to pay the costs of Mr. Hill.

NEW DRUG TESTED

20,000 PATIENTS
TO BE TREATED
SIMULTANEOUSLY

Medicine That Has No
Harmful Effect

IMMUNISATION FOLLOWS
FOR SOME TIME

Tunis. No less than 20,000 suffering from malaria will be the subjects of one of the most comprehensive medical experiments in the past decade when a new method of combatting the dreaded fever, discovered recently by French scientists, is actually tried here by the stricken victims.

The project, however, will not be altogether an experiment, except in so far as the huge number of people to be treated are concerned.

The current experiment is being tried in a vast marshy region near Cape Bon noted for the scourge of malaria.

In a special district near here, several hundred people were involved in a test of the new medicine, and since the test no new cases of malaria have been reported in the canton.

Malarial Hot-Bed

The treatment is extremely simple and consists of oral doses of a special medicine. The medicine has absolutely no harmful effect upon the person who takes it, such as sickness, loss of appetite, headaches, etc., and the feature will make it easy for natives to take the treatment without fear.

The effect of the medicine is to chemically destroy or sterilise the malaria virus in the blood of persons affected and to make them immune for some period of time. Mosquitoes not yet carriers of malaria, which bite a person afflicted but who has taken the medicine, will not become carriers.

Clearing The Mosquitoes

In addition to the medical treatment the authorities are making every effort to eliminate the source of mosquitoes by draining the numerous swamps and by utilising new forms of deadly insecticides.

The huge experiment is being watched with great interest and the authorities, confident of success, foresee the beneficial application of the treatment to other malaria-infested districts elsewhere.

COMMISSION FOR PALESTINE

MEMBERS NAMED
BY GOVERNMENT

LORD PEEL AS CHAIRMAN

London, To-day.

In the House of Commons yesterday the Minister for the Colonies, Mr. W. B. A. Ormsby-Gore, announced that Lord Peel would be Chairman of the Royal Commission to investigate conditions in Palestine. The other members would be Sir Horace Rumbold, Sir Morris Carter, Sir Laurie Hammond, Sir Harold Morris and Professor Coupland. The Commission will not begin work in Palestine under order is restored.—Reuter.

Lord Peel was a member of the Indian Round Table Conference and Chairman of the Burma Round Table Conference, 1931-32; Sir Horace Rumbold was formerly Ambassador to Germany; Sir Morris Carter was formerly President of the Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa and latterly served on the Cotton Enquiry Commission in Uganda and the Kenya Land Commission, 1932-33; Sir Laurie Hammond was Governor of Assam from 1927 to 1932 and Chairman of the Indian Delimitation Committee, 1935; Sir Harold Morris has been President of the Industrial Court since 1926; Professor Coupland has been Beit Professor of Colonial History at Oxford since 1920.

COMMISSION'S AIM

A British Official Wireless message adds that the Commission is "to ascertain the underlying causes of the disturbances which broke out in Palestine in the middle of April, to enquire into the manner in which the Mandate of Palestine was being implemented, in relation to the obligations of the Mandatory towards Arabs and Jews respectively; and to ascertain whether, upon proper consideration of the terms of the Mandate, either Arabs or Jews had any legitimate grievances on account of the way in which the Mandate had been or was being implemented, and if the Commission is satisfied that any such grievances were well founded, to make recommendations for their removal and for prevention of their recurrence."

Asked why Martial Law had not yet been enforced in Palestine, Mr. Ormsby-Gore said that Martial Law had not been proclaimed because, having regard to the extensive powers conferred on the High Commissioner by the Palestine Defence Order-in-Council, it had not yet been thought necessary or desirable to do so.

AIR RESEARCH IN GERMANY

NEW ACADEMY TO BE FOUNDED

IMPORTANT ORGANISATION

"CHINA MAIL" SPECIAL
Berlin, To-day.

A German Academy for Aeronautical Research will be founded here shortly by order of Chancellor Hitler. The statutes of the new academy, whose members will be prominent scientists and engineers who have distinguished themselves in the field of aeronautical research, have been drafted by the Air Minister, General Goering, himself. The working methods of the new academy will follow those of the other great scientific academies, that is, papers prepared in co-operation with the members will be put before the Academy, and the members will be obliged to hold lectures before the Academy at regular intervals.

Each year a full session will be held on March 1 as a commemoration of the day when German aviation gained its full freedom. The academy will also submit an annual report to the Reich Air Minister in which the progress of the research work is related.

The importance of the new academy is indicated by the fact that General Goering has been appointed its President by Chancellor Hitler, and the Secretary of State in the Air Ministry will be one of the academy's two Vice-Presidents. — Trans-Ocean Service.

PLEA OF GUILTY TO THEFT

Six Months' Hard
Labour Imposed

A total of six months' hard labour was imposed on Kwan Shui, aged 22, a former employee of the Hong Kong Sanatorium Hospital, when he pleaded guilty before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistrate to (a) theft of £75 from a drawer in the hospital on May 11, (b), theft of a numbering stamp machine on June 22 and (c) theft of £15 on June 27.

Detective-sergeant Downman said that the defendant was formerly employed at the hospital. On May 11 the theft was discovered and a report made to the Police. The defendant absconded. The thefts in the other charges were committed from the office, to which defendant had gained admittance by means of a duplicate key.

On Monday defendant was seen crouching behind a wall and when chased made good his escape. As the result of information received he was arrested in Shamshui yesterday and admitted the thefts.

NEW YORK SHARE
MARKET

Further Selling
Anticipated
WITH MODERATELY LOWER PRICES

Messrs. White, Weld and Company, New York Correspondents for Messrs. S. E. Levy and Company, report:—

Stocks: Based on the fact that the bulk of the immediate favourable news is now out, we anticipate further selling, with moderately lower prices. We would not expect the reaction to go beyond 162.00 and 52.00 in the Dow-Jones averages for industrials and rails, respectively. Business done:
1,950,000 shares.

Wheat: Improved domestic buying power suggests excellent consumption. Large Canadian exports to the European Continent are reported on account of bad weather conditions there. Total sales: 23,954,000 bushels.

Corn: Conditions are very poor.
We feel that even soaking rains will not be able to improve the crop in the important areas.

Cotton: Increasing fears of an upward revision of crop estimates caused further liquidation. A prediction of the weather indicates clear and warm conditions. We think the long view is moderately bullish and we favour purchases at around 12.00 cents.

Flash: Average crude oil production for the past week is estimated at 2,961,000 barrels.
The Edison Electric Institute estimates electricity production for the past week at 2,038,000,000
k.w.h., an increase of 14.5 per cent.
as compared with the corresponding period of last year.

REMOVAL OF SANCTIONSTRADE PARLEYS
STRIKE A SNAG

London, To-day.
The Anglo-Italian negotiations for the resumption of trade, following the removal of sanctions, have been suspended, through Italy's inability to accept the minimum British terms for the liquidation of the frozen debts of between two and three millions sterling. Belgium has suspended the negotiations for the same reason. Holland, and France are meeting the same difficulties but the negotiations continue.
In default of an agreement British firms will export to Italy at their own risk, which means that there will be little trade. Reuters

LOCAL SOLICITOR
SUSPENDED

(b) That the said Charles Andrew Sutherland, Russ has been guilty of disgraceful and dishon-ourable conduct as a Solicitor, in that he being a Solicitor was a party to and executed the following written agreements with persons not duly qualified to act as attorneys or solicitors, namely:—

(i) Agreement dated the fifth day of February 1935 made between the said Charles Andrew Sutherland Russ of the one part and Li Wing Chi and Fung Kit Ling of the other part, by which the said Charles Andrew Sutherland Russ agreed in consideration of the sum of $30,000, paid to him by the said Li Wing Chi and Fung Kit Ling, to share the profits of his business of a solicitor carried on by him in this Colony under the name of Lee and Russ, with the said
Li Wing Chi and Fung Kit Ling, and to carry on business and the practice of a solicitor for a period of 15 years for the common interest of all parties to the said agreement, and that the said agreement in effect is a partnership agreement between the said Charles Andrew Sutherland
Russ and persons not duly qualified to act as attorneys or solicitors; alternatively, that the said agreement gives control of the business and practice of the said Charles Andrew Sutherland
Russ and its management to persons not duly qualified as aforesaid as therein mentioned or their successors.

(ii) Two agreements dated respectively the 13th and 15th days of May 1926 made between the said Charles Andrew Sutherland Russ of the one part and Fung Kit Ling of the other part, by which agreements and the joint effect thereof the said
Charles Andrew Sutherland
Russ binds himself, so long as he shall practise as a solicitor in Hong Kong, to retain the services of the said Fung Kit Ling and gives the said Fung Kit Ling authority to agree the amount of costs payable in respect of all work introduced by the said Fung Kit Ling.

(iii) An agreement made in or about the month of August 1926 between the said
Charles Andrew Sutherland
Russ of the one part and certain persons not duly qualified to act as attorneys or solicitors, namely Wong Kien Kee, Lo Kwok Min and Dai Sau Wan of the other part, in which agreement
the terms and conditions contained in the said agreement of the fifth day of February 1925, were in effect applied to and for the benefit of the said Wong Kien
Kee, Lo Kwok Min and Dai Sau Wan in place of the said Li Wing Chi and Fung Kit Ling.

(c) That the said Charles Andrew Sutherland Russ has been guilty of disgraceful and dishon-ourable conduct as a Solicitor, in that he wrote two several letters dated respectively the 24th and 30th days of May 1935 at Paignton, England, addressed and de-patched to one K. K. Wong in this Colony, in that the said letters contain an offer by the said Charles Andrew Sutherland Russ to enter into an association to carry on the practice of a Solicitor with a person not duly qualified to act as an attorney or solicitor.

agreement as a whole we are not satisfied that its provisions are in any way inconsistent with the terms which might properly be imported into a loan agreement,
where the security for the considerable sum loaned is so personal in its nature. Having come to that conclusion as to the proper construction of the agreement it is unnecessary for us to consider and determine any of the several points made to us regarding the true meaning and intent of Section 32 of the Solicitors' Act of 1843 and the mischief aimed at by that section. We have found that the relations between the respondent and the unqualified persons
Li Wing Chi and Fung Kit Ling
and subsequent to August, 1926,
Wong Kien Kee, Lo Kwok Min and Dai Sau Wan, were those of debtor and creditor, and the first and second of the charges brought against the respondent therefore fail.

THIRD CHARGE

I turn now to a consideration of the facts on which the third charge is based. The respondent left the Colony in 1929 and resumed the practice of his profession in England. In May, 1935, he received a cablegram reading:
"Can you return practice in Hong Kong. Wire expenses required." This cablegram was from one Wong Lo, and the respondent has stated that he assumed that it was sent by one
K. K. Wong. Respondent replied
"Wong Lo. Expenses $250" and received a reply "Cabling expenses 14 days. Book earliest steamer." It was after the passing of these cable communications that the respondent wrote the two letters, dated 24th and 30th May, 1935, respectively, on which the third charge is based,
and which were in the following terms:—

EXHIBIT F.I.

Stanley Richards & Co.,

Waycott's Corner,

Paignton,

24th May, 1935.

Dear Mr. K. K. Wong,

I duly received your cable and wired to-day "Expenses $250."

I should be prepared to return to

Hong Kong on some such terms as these.

12 years contract. Guaranteed

$1,200 a month and 30 per cent. of net profits, payable yearly. First

$1,200 to be paid on arrival in Colony.

7 months leave on full pay and ist-class passage 4th, 8th and 11th years.

April to October. $20,000 Life policy to be taken out on arrival in trust for wife and paid her on death.

I am to remain total during the whole of my period in Hong Kong.

I have done this now for over five years and would not be otherwise.

If you think this worth considering, I shall have to give at least three months' notice here and will do so the moment I am notified. My expenses have been cabled and sail on the first practicable date.

You will of course arrange for offices and a good staff of clerks, &c.,

to be available on my arrival.

I can save 14 days on the voyage

by sailing via Canada, but this would cost another $25.

I should rather rely on an opportunity of returning and making good

On the recommendation of the Minister of the Interior, Dr. Frick, the S.S. Leader Herr Himmler, formerly chief of the Prussian Secret Police, has been named Chief of the German Police by the Fuehrer.

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES

The President Hoover will arrive in Hong Kong tomorrow morning and is scheduled to sail for Manila at 6 p.m. on the same day.

The President Lincoln will sail from Kowloon Wharf at 6 p.m. today for Shanghai, Kobe, Yokohama, Honolulu, San Francisco, thence to Los Angeles, and Panama Canal to New York.

The wedding took place at the Registry yesterday of Mr. Pau Koon Tat, well-known local merchant, and Miss Sung Yuk-ting. Mr. M. J. Abbott, Deputy Registrar of Marriages, officiated, and the witnesses were Mr. Pau Kam-kei and Mrs. Ko Hing-liag.

The Y.M.C.A. Discussion Group will hold a meeting in the West Lounge on Sunday next at 9 p.m. The subject will be "Why Be Good?" and the discussion will be led by Mr. Ashton.

A Services' Whist Drive will be held in the West Lounge of the Y.M.C.A. at 9 p.m. on Monday next.

Hong Kong rainfall for the 24 hours ending at 10 a.m. today was 0.16 inch. The total since January 1 has been 33.36 inches, against an average of 52.37 inches.

REDUCTION IN CAPITAL APPLICATION GRANTED

An application for the reduction of capital by the Hong Kong and Shanghai Hotels Ltd., from $15,000,000 divided into 1,500,000 shares of $10 to $11,250,000 divided into 1,500,000 shares of $7.50 each, was made this morning at the Supreme Court before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, by Mr. D'Almeida e Castro Jr., instructed by Messrs. Deacons.

His Lordship granted the application.

SMART SENTENCE FOR BAG-SNATCHING

Ghan Fook, aged 22, was sentenced to six months' hard labour by Mr. C. B. Burgess at the Central Magistracy for snatching the hand-bag of Mrs. J. Russell of No. 28 Morrison Hill Road yesterday. He was chased by two Europeans and caught near the Star Ferry. The bag was found tucked in his girdle.

CRUELTY TO SPARROW

For cruelty to a sparrow by tying a string to one of its feet and letting it fly and pulling it back again, Ho Fuk Yuen, aged 36, a newspaper deliverer, was fined $25, in default two weeks' imprisonment, by Mr. C. B. Burgess at the Central Magistracy this morning. The bird was on the point of dying when the man was arrested.

SURGERY EXPLOSION

While gas company workmen were carrying out alterations in a new surgery at Hornsey recently the escaping gas caught fire, and one man was badly injured about the arm.

ELECTRICAL INDUSTRY A BUSY YEAR DISCLOSED G.E.C. ACTIVITY

The result of the widespread activities of the General Electric Co., Ltd., England, during the past year has meant the employment of some 4,000 or 5,000 additional workers; so that the total number of employees in this concern now exceeds 34,000.

The activity in the gold mining industry brought a number of orders to Fraser and Chalmers for mining equipments. Rolling mill equipment, conveying plant and other important mechanical orders also contributed towards keeping these works fully employed, while the increased activity in the heavy engineering workshops at Witten has been well maintained. The rolling mill plant for Dorman Long and Co. included one of the largest motors built in England, with a maximum peak output of 20,500 h.p.

ILLUMINATION FIELD

In the field of illumination great progress has been made. Some 1,400 miles of roads are now lighted by the Osira lamp, thus decreasing the dangers to all road users, while in addition it has found its way into the industrial sphere for the lighting of large workshops, railway yards, harbours etc. The study of aerodrome lighting has been so successfully developed that during the last 12 months a large number of important contracts have been received for home and overseas. At the same time the important branch of lighting equipment for film studios has not been neglected. In the home it is being more and more generally realised that the use of electrical appliances is no more a luxury, and there is a rapidly growing demand for cookers, water-heaters, washers and a whole range of domestic appliances.

QUEEN'S THEATRE To Be Re-Opened On Saturday

INCREASED AMENITIES

It is announced by Mr. C. S. Rosselet, manager of the General Amusements Company, who control the Alhambra Theatre, that the lease of the Queen's Theatre has been taken over by his company, and that the theatre will re-open on Saturday next at 2.30 p.m. the daily sessions being as previously.

Warner's super-musical production "The Singing Kid" has been secured for the opening, featuring Al Jolson, Sybil Jason, Edward Everett Horton, the Yacht Club Boys and Cab Galloway and his famous band. Arrangements are being made for the early release of Paramount's "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" directed by Henry Hathaway, who directed "Lives of a Bengal Lancer." This is an all-colour production showing an entirely new process which has been received enthusiastically wherever shown.

Mr. Rosselet states that the theatre will be air-conditioned, and every effort made to study the comfort of patrons. It is intended to provide the best pictures obtainable.

British Fleet Movements

The following is the intended programme for ships of the China Squadron which have recently been serving off the Station:

H.M. destroyers Decoy, Defender, Dainty and Diana arrive at Singapore tomorrow and will leave for Hong Kong next Monday, arriving here on Saturday week. They will leave Hong Kong for Wei-hai-wei on August 12, and arrive at their destination on August 16. They will remain North for an indefinite period.

H.M.S. Berwick, county class cruiser, will arrive in Penang on August 13 and will leave for Singapore three days later. She is expected to leave Singapore for Hong Kong on August 21 and is expected in the Colony on or about August 25. The Berwick will remain in the Colony for four Erich Fiebigler, of Senftenberg, a 14-year-old boy who has saved seven children from drowning, is seen above being congratulated by Reichschancellor Hitler when the Fuehrer presented him with a gold watch in commemoration of his bravery.

Dear Mr. K. K. Wong. I have provisionally booked a passage on the N.D.L. s.s. "Potsdam" which leaves Southampton in September and arrives in Hong Kong on the 5th November. The shipping company informed me that the ship was nearly booked up already, and that unless I confirmed this at once, I should be unable to get a passage until their next ship sailing in November.

I accordingly cabled to-day to you as follows:—

"Booked Potsdam remittance urgently required to-morrow." Immediately on receipt of the remittance I will give in my Notice here, pay the passage money, and confirm the booking. I assume that we shall be able to agree to terms on my arrival, somewhat on the lines of those set out in my letter to you of the 24th instant.

I have a lease of my present house for 3 years, and a lot of furniture, which I shall have to dispose of somehow. I do not know what has happened out there. Whether Loseby has died suddenly or what, but of course I shall hear in time.

I hope the new arrangement will be most successful. I shall make a hobby of my office work when I come out again. I have had 5 years' wonderful experience down here, and learnt how important the office is. Really I was awfully bad before. I might have been good in Court and had a reputation, but for good solid work and hard thinking, I was thoroughly second rate.

Kind regards to all.

Yours sincerely,
(Signed) C. A. S. RUSS.
UNQUALIFIED PERSON
Mr. K. K. Wong to whom the letters are addressed, had been one of the three joint lenders of money to the respondent under the agreement of August 1926. He was in 1935 under articles to Mr. Loseby of the firm of Russ & Co., and is an unqualified person.

The respondent's case is that on receipt of the first cablegram he assumed that Mr. Wong had been admitted as a solicitor, or would be so admitted before he, the respondent, could arrive in Hong Kong, and that the offer was that the respondent should practice as a solicitor in Hong Kong in partnership with Mr. Randall and Mr. Wong, both duly qualified. The respondent adds that he had been informed and believed that Mr. Loseby, who took over from him the firm of Russ & Co., was dead, a belief which is happily premature, and that in that belief he considered his prospects in Hong Kong with congenial partners sufficiently bright to justify his giving up his employment in England.

NO PROPER ENQUIRIES

The respondent does not appear to have made any proper enquiries, in fact he does not allege that he did so. He himself puts it no higher than that on receipt of the first cablegram he assumed that Wong was or shortly would be qualified, and that he was being offered a partnership. The new arrangements were clearly not to be in any way like the old ones: there is nothing to suggest the relation of debtor and creditor. In the plainest terms the letters indicate the respondent's readiness to join Wong either as a partner or as an employee who in addition to his salary is to receive a share in the profits. They constitute, in the words of the third charge, an offer by the said Charles Andrew Sutherland Russ to enter into an association to carry on the practice of a solicitor with a person not duly qualified to act as an attorney or solicitor.

NO MATTER OF EXCUSE

Has there been, throughout the argument on this case, anything disclosed which would justify the respondent in believing that Mr. K. K. Wong was a qualified man and that the offer which he was making was one to which no taint of professional misconduct might attach? I have been unable to discover any matter of excuse. On the contrary, the respondent's conduct in writing these letters displays such a lack of prudence and is inspired by such a determination to close with the offer at once and to resume practice in Hong Kong regardless of the status of Wong, that I am forced to the conclusion that the respondent had no good grounds for his assumption that Wong had qualified as a solicitor and cared not whether he was qualified or not.

Such a reckless disregard of the ethics of the profession to which he belongs constitutes, in my opinion, disgraceful and dishonourable conduct as a Solicitor, and I therefore find that the third charge has been proved against the respondent.

The order of the Court is that Mr. Charles Andrew Sutherland Russ be suspended from the practice of his profession as a Solicitor for the period of 12 months from to-day.

The respondent has succeeded on two of the three issues before the Court, and in my view justice will be met by an order that each party pay his own costs.

There will be a Y.M.C.A. bathing picnic on Saturday next, the launch leaving the Police Pier at 3 p.m.

YOUTH STEALS FROM MOTHER

Alleged Drug Habit
At 17!

KEEPING BAD COMPANY

Li Yat-wo, aged 17, was this morning sentenced to six months' imprisonment by Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy for the theft of a gold ring, a jade ring, a wrist-let watch and $30 from his mother on July 12. He was also ordered to pay $51, the amount of the property not recovered, or serve another six weeks.

Acting Sub-Inspector Madgwick said that the defendant lived with his mother at No. 31 Wing Hing Street and when she had gone for a walk on that day he stole the jewellery and money. He went to Macau and had a good time and returned yesterday.

Defendant had been keeping bad company and a little while ago had taken several blankets from the house and sold them, while on another occasion he took the wall clock.

His mother would like to send him to an Industrial School but he was too old. She was pressing the case, in the hope that a sentence would cure him of his drug habit.

OPIUM CHARGE

Accused Allowed Bail
Of $5,000

Yuen Chan Lo, a cloth merchant, and Yuen Chung-po, a shop foki, were this morning charged before Mr. C. B. Burgess at the Central Magistracy with doing an act preparatory to the exportation of raw opium on the s.s. Hozan Maru at the O.S.K. Wharf, and with possession of the opium.

The first defendant pleaded guilty to both charges, while Mr. Hin Shing Lo, who appeared for the second, denied the charge. Revenue Officer Grimmett said that the amount of the opium was quite large.

Bail was allowed the second defendant in the sum of $5,000.

but remote chances of success. Nobody actually doubted his ability, but the position was summed up by the racegoer who remarked:—

"That kind of jockey is too unlucky to win Grand Nationals." But Regan rode a perfect race, and much of the luck of the National was with him. So he had the last laugh.

And here was an amateur in charge of Santa Casa. Here was Mr. J. P. Devine, a young man of whom little was known.

Owner's Fine Gesture
Few remembered him as the amateur who rode a dashing race to win a hunter's steeplechase on his own horse, Red Earl, at Moonee Valley three years ago, and few knew that he had ridden a winning double in amateur races on Ray Welkin at Wangaratta in March. And even many of those who remembered these wins considered that the experience of this young man was too limited for such a race as the Grand National Steeplechase.

J. Devine, the Flemington owner-trainer, holds the Grand National Steeplechase winner, Santa Casa on lease from Mr. A. E. Wallace, of Boabulla Station, New South Wales.

So elated was Mr. Wallace with the gelding's win, that he has presented Santa Casa to Devine until his racing days are over.

"A client of mine has two nominations booked to Blenheim for 1937 and two for 1938, and a nomination was sent for him to sign up for one nomination to Blenheim for season 1939 at a fee of 500 guineas as recently as July 2, when the negotiations for the sale of Blenheim were actually taking place.

Mode Of Advertisement

"If the Aga Khan is going to proceed in future with this mode of advertisement for his stallions, he should at least advertise in the 'Racing Calendar' that the nominations are subject to the stallion remaining in his possession."

Blenheim has been sold to a U.S. syndicate for a sum slightly less than £50,000. Mr. William Dupont, jun., and his sister, Mrs. Marion Somerville, descendants of the founder of the Dupont-de Nemours Powder Company, are largely interested in the syndicate.

Of Greatest Importance

Major Deane's letter raises a matter of the greatest importance to breeders of the best class of bloodstock writes "Hotspur" in The Daily Telegraph. Nominations to the "fashionable" sires such as Fairway and a few others—their number is limited—have to be booked years in advance, and are impossible to obtain at a moment's notice.

There was a case, though in different circumstances, last year which placed breeders in much the same position as that with which they are now faced. This was the sudden death of Blenheim's sire, Blandford.

Other Sires

Owners with nominations to him were at their wit's end to find suitable sires, and in many cases they could not get those they wanted. They had, therefore, to seek the services of the available horses, which in many cases they did not desire.

Of the other sires owned by the Aga Khan, and standing in England, Bahram has been advertised as "full" for 1937, and 1938, and Dastur, and Umidwar for 1937. Comparatively recent Derby winners like Hyperion, Manna, and Papyrus are all advertised as full

It was "a rub of the court" of course, and a player of Mr. Sperling's long experience and trained mind ought to have let the incident die a natural death, especially as it came so early in the match.

Confidence Shaken

Instead—and it may be that the questioning shouts from a section of the crowd increased her depression—she allowed Miss Jacobs to take four games in a row and win the first set without the physical and mental challenge that her opponent might have offered, and the escape from which obviously improved American chances.

All these four games, except the disturbing first, were played without a deuce, and it was evident by the errors of timing that came from Mrs. Sperling's forehead and even on her impervious backhand, that her confidence was shaken, as much by introspection as by the impregnable defence of her opponent.

Set Of 25 Minutes

The first set had occupied only 25 minutes—a relatively brief bout between two such redoubtable defenders.

The second took 35 minutes. Neither player was at her best at the same time; mistakes in defence rather than enterprise in attack gained the points.

Putting the past behind, Mrs. Sperling had won the first game to love. It was the American's turn to err. But she recovered to serve finely in the second and fourth games, losing only one point in them; and, having carried the long third game in between, in which her variation of pace was more subtle, she came, at 3-1, to a stage when victory could be visualised.

Desperately Anxious Fight

Now, until the end, all her steadiness of aim and wonderful "hurdling" power coming back. Mrs. Sperling was the player who has not sacrificed a set on the Continent for two years. Instead of moving forward peacefully to victory, trading on her adversary's errors, Miss Jacobs had to wage and win a desperately anxious fight carried to the limits of endurance.

At first she appeared to be yielding under the new and remorseless pressure. She lost the fifth game from 30, netting where she had formerly cleared, coming up on balls that exposed her lines. The sixth was won by Mrs. Sperling's staunch defence, and the seventh, which placed her ahead at 4-3, came to the German champion because her backhand in the rallies of "agonising" length was under better control.

Cheers For Mrs. Sperling

The story began to move to its climax. Mrs. Sperling, having conceded the eighth game from 15, had a net-cord to help her carry the ninth from 30; in the tenth she broke through the service amid heartening cheers; her recovery of touch and temper was complete.

Miss Jacobs' response was worthy of her dauntless spirit. Not only did she rob Mrs. Sperling of her service in the first game of the final set but, boldly coming forward, made two fine volleys that gave her a two-love lead. She might have been three-love but for two net-cords.

Love Game

Then, as fine rain came on, lowering the bounce of her insidious chop, she forced Mrs. Sperling to overdrive—the fourth game was hers to love.

At 15-40 down in the fifth game Mrs. Sperling's cause looked black. Fortune was to favour it with another net-cord, however; and the long backhand exchanges were operating in her favour again.

The 4-1 lead was averted, but Miss Jacobs went to 4-2, after much travail, with a service ace. She had thought that an earlier ace had scored, but the crowd heartened her by applauding the second and finishing blow.

Mourning Excitement

In the seventh game, excitement mounting, Mrs. Sperling kept Miss Jacobs running from side to side with returns under the firm-est control; even the American's chop broke under this pressure. Pursuing it, and inducing more netted chops, Mrs. Sperling squared the set at four—all she won the game point with a fine forehand passing shot.

But now Miss Jacobs was to get a timely net-cord in her favour; it carried her to "vantage" and to a 5-4 lead. Holding her service the championship awaited her. The great crowd became still. Miss Jacobs served a double fault! Then, mistiming a forehand drive, she lost the game from 30. All square again.

But the end was coming. Mrs. Sperling, deserting a base where she had been so invulnerable, came to the net; she was trapped by a false move. Her service was broken from 30.

Now Miss Jacobs, sensing her moral gain, launched a close-quarter attack. She reached 40-15; two match balls. A net-cord robbed her of the first; she lost the second through a fine backhand passing shot made by the coolest hand.

"Now Or Never"

Deuce, when all might have been over. A double fault reflected the mental anguish; advantage to Mrs. Sperling. Back again to deuce as Mrs. Sperling's backhand bent; and when Miss Jacobs had match ball again you could almost hear her saying to herself, "It is now or never. I am almost through." Only one more rally, and Mrs. Sperling had netted the ball. The title was determined. The husband of the loser, Mr. Svend Sperling, waiting in the wings near the umpire's chair, was the first to come forward and congratulate the winner. Then he went to his wife, who received a great ovation as she left the court.

A microphone detained the winner for a moment, but when she followed, to be greeted at the exit by Sir Herbert Wilberforce and Sir Samuel Hoare, the gallery rose and gave her a mighty shout.

All-British Doubles

The doubles final found the two British pairs showing signs of reaction from their hectic struggles of the previous day; and it may be that Hughes and Tuckey would have played better if they had not been conscious that their selection for the Davis Cup might depend on the result of this one encounter.

The first set went to Hughes and Tuckey in the tenth game. Its fate was virtually sealed in advance when Wilde, serving a double fault, lost his opening service without his partner touching the ball.

In the second set, Hare and Wilde, lifting their game to a rarefied height, broke the service twice in sequence and were out at 6-3. They collected the long third by really sterling play, though it must be confessed that Tuckey was helping them by netting volleys that he usually accepts and Hughes by volleying lapses. But the interceptions of Hare when Wilde was serving were superb and had a dramatic and disturbing effect.

Vital Service Break

Hughes told me afterwards that at this stage he had remembered his last Wimbledon final when he was two sets to one up and had lost; the reflection gave him hope. The fourth set was brief and one-sided. The vital fifth went with the service until the ninth game, when Wilde's service was sacrificed. His side had lost the first three points, one by a net-cord. But they recovered like heroes to "vantage" point, only to lose it through uncertainty as to which should hit the ball.

Hare and Wilde, when Tuckey served in the 10th game, made another fine effort. Their lives had been saved, at match ball, when Tuckey missed an easy smash and a brilliant smash by Hare even brought them within a stroke of five-all. But it was not to be.

Experience Counts

The experienced Hughes hoisted more and deeper lob, Hare was a little too eager, and then Hughes led 3-love and then Honours must be evenly divided after such a close and speculative contest. The winners were admittedly not at their best. Tuckey's service return was nothing like the searching weapon which the Americans had found in the previous day, nor was Hughes as safe overhead. But form in doubles especially, must vary from day to day. The main point is that England now

FORTIFICATION OF HELIGOLANDQuestion Asked In Commons

MR. EDEN'S STATEMENT

London, To-day.

Replying to a Commons question yesterday on the re-fortification of Heligoland, Mr. Anthony Eden said: "The action of the German Government in this matter is unilateral and if the matter were to be dealt with separately His Majesty's Government would require to formulate most express reservations with regard to that action. The House will, however, be aware from what I said in the course of last Monday's debate that negotiations have been set on foot which, it is hoped, may lead to a fresh effort at a European settlement in which Germany would play her full part. I hope, therefore, my Honourable friend will agree with His Majesty's Government in feeling that individual matters of this kind, though they cannot pass unobserved, should not be raised at the moment and in a manner which might react unfavourably on the negotiations to which I have referred, and thus prejudice the general settlement which we all hope may be reached." — British Wireless Service.

MISS MYRNA LOY
MARRIEDFilm Producer
Husband

New York.—Miss Myrna Loy, one of the most popular film actresses in Hollywood, was married last month to Mr. Arthur Hornblow, junior, one of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's producers. The wedding took place in Mexico.

They met three years ago when Mr. Hornblow, who was recently divorced from Juliette Crosby, the stage actress, was directing the film "Arrowsmith." Miss Loy, whose real name is Williams, was born in 1905 in Montana.

She originally intended to become a sculptress, but turned to films at the suggestion of Rudolph Valentino. He predicted that she would have a great screen career.

IMPROVING

The Military Attaché, Colonel Martinez, and the Second Secretary, Senior Devergas, also resigned, while the Naval Attaché had been recalled by the Government earlier. All other Embassy officials retain their posts.

The Ambassador called on Baron von Neurath yesterday to inform the Foreign Minister that he had handed in his resignation.

PUERRE'S GRATITUDE

Berlin: The Puerre's deputy called on the Italian Ambassador, Professor Attolico, yesterday to thank him in the name of the Reich Government and the National-Socialist Party for the energetic help rendered by the Italian Government to the Germans in distress in Spain. Especially Dr. Hess thanked Professor Attolico for the Italian's having saved the National-Socialist Group Leader from the Bolshevik group that was about to execute a "sentence of death." — Trans-Ocean Service.

NEW BRITISH ORDERS

London, To-day.

Simultaneously with the statement of Sir Samuel Hoare, First Lord of the Admiralty, in the House of Commons on the British naval building proposals, Admiral Standley, Acting Secretary of the United States Navy, informed a conference of pressmen that he had not the slightest doubt that the United States would begin the construction of two battleships next year.

GERMAN-ITALO AGREEMENT

Rome, To-day.

A special German-Italo agreement is announced, whereby interest payments on coupons of the Italian quotas of the Dawes and Young Loans are reduced forthwith to 5 and 4 per cent. respectively, compared with 7 and 5½ per cent. previously. — Reuter.

The actual decision would depend on evidence that Britain or some other Power had begun construction. — Reuter.

ORDERS PLACED

London: In the House of Commons yesterday the First Lord of the Admiralty, Sir Samuel Hoare, announced that it had been decided to give orders for the two new battleships of the 1936 programme to Vickers-Armstrong at Walker-on-Tyne and Cammell Laird at Birkenhead.

The arrangements for laying down these ships were being made in full accordance with the declared policy of the Government to press on with the naval replacement and new construction programme with all possible speed. It was the intention that the keels should be laid at the earliest moment permitted by the Washington Naval Treaty, namely, in January 1937.

Sir Samuel Hoare added that with regard to the enquiry made by the Minister for the Co-ordination of Defence, Sir Thomas Inskip, into the vulnerability of capital ships, he had received an advance copy of the draft report from which it appeared that the designs of battleships would not be affected by the recommendations. — British Wireless Service.

HIS MAJESTY

London, To-day.

Six thousand Canadian pilgrims were entertained at a Garden Party at Buckingham Palace yesterday afternoon, at which T.R.H. the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester acted as host and hostess on behalf of the King. Half-way through the proceedings His Majesty himself appeared among his guests, who gave him an overwhelming reception, and he was surrounded by cheering crowds until both hosts and guests were forced to seek shelter from a heavy downpour of rain. Afterwards His Majesty spoke a few words to the pilgrims from the balcony of the Palace. — British Wireless Service.

The Commons

London, To-day.

In the House of Commons yesterday Mr. G. Le M. Mander (L., E. Wolverhampton), questioned the Prime Minister regarding the plan disclosed by Mr. O. Pirow, South African Minister of Defence, and placed by him before the British Government when in London, for the European Powers with African possessions each to give a portion in order to make room for Germany, and he asked whether any of the Powers in question had been approached or had signified their willingness to enter into such an arrangement under any circumstances.

Mr. Baldwin, the Prime Minister, replied that no such plan as that described by Mr. Mander had been communicated to the Government nor, so far as he was aware, to any other Government. The second part of the question did not therefore arise. — British Wireless Service.

CHINA YEAR BOOK

1935 EDITION

The 25 Chapters of the 17th issue of the CHINA YEAR BOOK, edited by H. G. W. Woodhead, C.B.E., have as usual been revised or rewritten with the assistance of many experts, Chinese and foreign, and every effort has been made to bring information and statistics up to date.

The Chapter on the Kuomintang covers the political history of China in 1934. The Chapter on the Chinese Government contains the Text of the Provisional Constitution, the Organic Law, and the Draft of the Permanent Constitution.

The Chapter on International Issues gives the text of the Agreement and Exchange of Notes of the sale of the Chinese Eastern Railway, besides the latest documents relating to Sino-Japanese issues.

China's Communications—Railways, Roads, Post Office, Telegraphs, Wireless, Telephones and Aviation—are very fully dealt with.

Father D'Elia, in the Chapter on Religions, contributes an interesting Chronological Review of Catholic Missions in China.

Mr. E. Kinn is again responsible for the Chapter on Currency and Banking, and the Loan Tables.

A new feature is a Chapter on China's Modern Industries.
